MEMORANDUM:

Mrs. Henry Stevens states that her mother and sister, Mrs. and Miss Griffin, were served with subpoenas by the prosecution.

She was also questioned at her home in the early afternoon today by Walsh and Burke. She informed them that she would not answer any question pertaining to Mr. Stevens. They inquired about the apartment she had in New York City in 1922, and she informed them that the lease expired Oct. 1st, 1922. They also inquired about the kind of suit Mr. Stevens wore on Sept. 14, 1922, and whether it was a gray one. She replied that he always, as long as she could recall, wore a gray suit. They also inquired if he had purchased a suit from Lyons & Parker and whether it was a suit of clothing that was sent to him at Lavalette from New Brunswick. As to this she replied they had better facilities than she to investigate the matter of the purchase of a suit at Lyons & Parker.

They asked how it was that Mrs. Hall employed as many as seven detectives in 1922 if she considered herself innocent and why these detectives bribed witnesses and thanked those witnesses who had appeared before the 1922 Grand Jury. To those
